Gold Medals from all over the World.

Recent Improvements add greatly to their efficiency. They will positively carry much larger and heavier Shades than any other Spring Roller.

Injunctions have been granted by the United States Circuit Courts, prohibiting the manufacture sale of both the "Bagle" and "Victor "Rollers. They have both been held infringements upon a patents, and cannot therefore be now lafwully sold, nor this Fall, as advertised by some parties, bey also infringe patents held by me that have not yet nearly expired. All infringers claim originally superiority and victory, until the United States Courts pronounce their rollers infringements, whey promise to furnish their "better" and "patent protected" rollers to their alleged customs "as soon as Hartshorn's Patents expire." They are all imitators, and copy construction for loilers, advertisements, electrotypes, and all. If there was no property in patents, they would able to offer the trade improvements nearly as rapidly as I could secure patents for my invention. They or their successors will, after the course of some years, olemily inform the trade that they can be also be also because the superior quality and the provided of the patents of of the p

Send for Model and Descriptive Circulars. NOTICE. -- Stewart Hartshorn sued the predecessors of this Company in the U.S. C. Court in Michigan, claiming that this Roller was an infringement of his patents. The suit was tried on its merits, and in April, 1883, judgment was rendered against him, and he was compelled to pay the costs of the litigation. No injunction has ever been granted in any court restraining the manufacture of the "VICTOR" Rollers, and this Company owning and controlling the patents under which it is made, will protect all parties buying or selling them.
